Bantam Doubleday Dell Publishing Group Inc, United States, 1999. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Thomas Cook is one of today s most acclaimed writers of psychological thrillers, penning hypnotic tales of forbidden love and devastating secrets. Now he has written an unforgettable novel that weaves one man s tortured life with a deadly mystery that spans five decades. Riverwood is an artists community in the Hudson River valley, a serene place where writers can perfect their craft. But for all its beauty and isolation, it was once touched by a terrible crime--the murder of a teenage girl who lived on the estate fifty years ago. Faye Harrison s killer was never caught--and now her dying mother is desperate to learn the truth about her daughter s murder. Enter Paul Graves, a writer who draws upon the pain of his own tragic past to write haunting tales of mystery. Graves has been summoned to Riverwood for an unusual assignment: to apply the art of fiction to a crime that was real, and then write a story that will answer the questions that keep Faye s mother from a peaceful death. Just a story. It doesn t have to be true. Or does it?.
