Great Quotes for Personal Growth. - - - Benjamin Franklin (1706-1790), was one of America s most influential Founding Fathers of the United States. A renowned polymath, a leading author, printer, political theorist, politician, Freemason, postmaster, scientist, inventor, civic activist, statesman, and diplomat. He earned the title of The First American for his early campaigning for colonial unity. For some Franklin was one of the most accomplished American of his time, and the most influential in creating the type of society America would become over the years because he was foundational in defining the American ethos as a blend of the practical values of thrift, hard work, education, community spirit, self-governing institutions. He opposed authoritarianism in both politics and religion. He was a significant figure for his discoveries about electricity and creating the lightning rod, bifocals, swim fins, the Franklin stove, and many other useful inventions....
