THE LAW OF MULTIPLICATION THESES (PAPERBACK)

Xulon Press, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The world was created exnihilo, this means God exists necessarily or without cause. Because God exists necessarily, He creates with cause or purpose. Understanding His creative order gives us the ability to comprehend the world around us. Procreation is God s gift to man, it allows man a part in God s creative process. God has created all complex life to have the ability to self-replicate and to multiply itself through the male and female relationship. Understanding the need for God is where the process starts. Nothing comes from nothing and nothing ever could. And nothing comes into existence without a cause. When one is considering chance variation or random mutation, material evolution, Darwin s theory, which has been proven false or has been falsified, or the non-procreative agenda: homosexuality; one must also consider the consequences. Any life form that does not have the ability to self-replicate or to multiply itself, cannot sustain complex life. Simply put, no multiplication process--no life on earth, or do I chance it! Finally, the fool scoffs at those realities he refuses to comprehend.
