Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The American Year Book, 1914: A Record of Events and Progress The Supervisory Board of representatives of national learned and scientific societies, officially known as the American Year Book Corporation, has continued actively to assist in the preparation of the year Book. The members of this Board, who originally projected the work, remain individually responsible for the scope and content of the reviews of their respective fields; several are themselves contributors; many have cooperated with the Editor in securing contributors; and all have assisted the Editor with criticism and counsel. The Supervisory Board has now forty members, a complete list of whom will be found on a subsequent page, representing forty-four societies. The American Paleontological Society, represented by Dr. Charles R. Eastman, has been added to the list of constituent societies. Two other changes in personnel have occurred during the year: Rear Admiral Caspar F. Goodrich has succeeded Captain Carlos Gilman Calkins as representative of the United States Naval Institute, and the vacancy caused by the death of Henry Gannett, President of the National Geographic Society, has been filled by the appointment of Gyms O. Adams, representing the American Geographical Society. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
