Strategic Book Publishing Rights Agency, LLC, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Priding himself on being the snappiest of dressers, in the book Mr. Sweetcorn is wearing a lemon yellow shirt, red trousers, a green and red striped jacket, and a red bow tie. His outfit is topped off by a bowler hat. Stylish and bright, he is guided by the wonderful world of technology, believing all gadgets should be tried and tested. Mr Sweetcorn s Adventure begins at the break of dawn, when obstacles and unforeseen incidents test the patience and endurance of this larger-than-life character, who has no fear of the energy that makes him feel enormous. Any given moment something big might happen, so Mr. Sweetcorn is always ready to combat any situation and overcome obscure mishaps. There s never a dull moment when Mr Sweetcorn s about. David Driscoll started to write short stories at creative writing classes, writing about supporting characters that are a little different. He started writing when he was four and now creates children s stories with bright and bold illustrations. Dreams can come true and the world would be a great place if this happened all the time. Never give up with destiny and enjoy the fruitfulness along the way. Stick to your decisions and make things happen. When the first drafts were created, I could see the results beyond pen and paper. You only see what your eyes want to see, so use the gift of imagination and produce a legacy. This is his third book. The first two were Charlie and Felicity Go Wild and Discovery of Duck Nation. The author lives in Ipswich, Suffolk, England. Publisher s website: //sbprabooks.com/DavidDriscoll.
