When Travis Macgregor headed down to the river that day, he didn't pay any attention to the weather. His mind was on fishing; he did not notice the approaching storm clouds. Suddenly, the sky unleashed heavy winds and rain, he was ill prepared. Luck is on his side though. In the ravine, behind the secluded cove he had been fishing, Travis finds a cave-a dry place to wait for the storm to pass. Inside the cave is a pool of water. Crystal clear water. Travis doesn't give the water a second thought; he never would have guessed that his life would soon be turned upside down because of the water.
