Kluwer Law International, Netherlands, 1982. Paperback. Condition: New. 1982 ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Last year I addressed the Netherlands Comparative Law Association with the following question: Does Comparative Law Exist At All? (My intention then was to flog the dead (?) horse of the merger of comparative law and the sociology of law.) In presenting this voluminous collection of Netherlands national reports to the eleventh congress of the International Academy of Comparative Law I feel my misgivings giving way to the suspicion, that comparative law indeed exists. Of course national reports do not, as such, prove the existence of comparative law. It is the general reports together with the national reports, which embody the comparative effort. That is why the Netherlands Comparative Law Association took the initiative to propose the publishing of the materials on a subject to subject basis instead of publishing collections of national reports. From a comparative legal point of view, it is the topic that should form the basis of the publication, and not the origin of the materials. The general reporter for each topic should be prepared to take up the responsibilities of editing the volume, and would have to be given the right to select those national reports which he considers to be useful both in regard to their quality and the relevance of the material to the basic problems in the questionnaire. This proposal met with very favourable comments from the national committees and general reporters of some fifteen countries.
