JOURNAL OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR PSYCHICAL RESEARCH, 1920, VOL. 7 (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Journal of the American Society for Psychical Research, 1920, Vol. 7 This experiment I also performed with the boy. But, before doing so, I received through Mrs. Chenoweth direct reference to my experiments with him without hinting to her either in her normal state or in her trance what I was doing. I got good evidence of cross reference of a certain kind in this way. The control described the character of the phenomena going on with the boy. I then arranged to have the boy take some sittings with Mrs. Chenoweth, preserving his incognito and my own silence as to the case, and again distinctly supernormal information was conveyed regarding his phenomena and other events that had happened in the life of the family. What had to be treated as subconscious on its own recognizance was acknowledged as being influence from the transcendental side, so that the case becomes as interesting as that of Miss De Camp in that respect. The record of what occurred in those sittings will be published at some later time. It suffices here merely to remark the nature of the experiment and the result.
