Forgotten Books, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Armourers and Brasiers: Report as to Estates, Properties and Trusts In the year 1809, under the powers contained in an Act of Parliament, 49 Geo. III., the Company was authorised to sell to the Bank of England all the property in the Old Jewry so devised, which, as before mentioned, is fully described in the first schedule to the Act, for ten thousand pounds, and the property so purchased by the Bank was to be held by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England discharged of and from all the trusts, charges, limitations, and other incumbrances mentioned in and created by the Will of the said Dame Elizabeth Morriss; and it was by the said Act enacted that from the time of such sale the several messuages, tenements, lands, hereditaments, and premises mentioned in the second schedule of the said Act, which were the inheritance of the said Company of Armourers and Brasiers, and were in their possession, should be held by the said Company and their successors, for all their estate, right, title, and interest therein, upon, under, and subject to the same or the like ends, intents, and purposes, as the lands and tenements of the said Dame Elizabeth Morriss devised in trust as aforesaid.
