Raquel wants to write a novel, and while she has the education, her past continually represses her dream. Laura wants to sing, but at fifty she fears she has waited too long. Jenna desires fame on the stage, or is the adoration of men she truly seeks? Sydney is running out of time. She spent her life serving others, but only wants to be the belle of the ball. Stephanie joins the group hoping to escape the loneliness of her life after being released from prison. As they travel their course, they find that some desires require sacrifice, while others might not have been what they desired at all. In the process, God uncovers their hearts, leads over obstacles, and reveals what they truly delight themselves in.
