

The Sins of the Fathers (Paperback)

By Ralph Adams Crams

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Those who have read Dr. Cram s recent books on The Nemesis of Mediocrity and The Great Thousand Years will hasten with much eagerness to read his latest book on The Sins of the Fathers. They will not be disappointed. In this little book he traces all the evils of the war to what he considers the three fundamental causes: Imperialism, the Quantitative Standard, and Materialism. It is rather a large order that he calls for in the doing away with Imperialism: nothing less than a huge act of self-denial, a huge act of abnegation resulting in the dissolution of the great empires of Britain, France and the United States. England must abrogate her sovereignty over Canada, India, Australia, South Africa, and Egypt; France must abandon the African possessions she has governed so well; and the United States must declare the independence of the Philippines and agree to be separated into four or five autonomous states. He claims that the present war has utterly destroyed modern civilization and that what follows after must be fundamentally different in form and in idea....
