Premio Publishing & Gozo Books, LLC. Paperback. Condition: New. 214 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.5in. (Suspense) 108 years in the making! What if you came home after a journey and your family was no longer there What if someone else was living in your house, running what you used to manage and trying to kill you Wade Forester must stay in the shadows because, it seems, everyone has reason to shoot him. His father has disappeared, and his sister won't speak a word to anyone. Beautiful Patricia Laughlin is searching for her family as well. Few people gain her trust or approval, though powerful landowner Bridger Calhoun just might be the man to do it. After a clash throws them to opposite sides, Wade must decide if risking his life to help Patricia is worth the trouble. Bridger must win Patricia's heart; and Patricia must learn which killer to trust with her life. Set in Nevada's silver rush, and reminiscent of Twain, the writing comes from intimate knowledge of the era and area. Having lived off the land, Wilcox depended on his wit, grit, and strength and that of his animals for survival, just as these characters do. Wilcox weaves authentic detail and care for the soil and its creatures into a thriller that will make your heart pound and fill your lungs with the rarefied air of the old Sierra Nevada Mountains. Comes with additional short story. Family safe (ages 14 and up), diverse characters, 54,000 words, 200 pages. Also an ebook, soon an audiobook and graphic novel. Simultaneously published as A Sky So Big (YA western romance mystery). Premio Publishing (worldwide rights 2015) Premiobooks.com, Baker and Taylor, BN, EBSCO, Follett, Ingram, Mackin, Quality Books, KindleAmazon.com, Sony, iTunes, Kobo, Diesel, and select retailers. Written by Ransom Wilcox and...
