Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . I am. different. When I was young, the other kids told me so. They said I was weird. Some were even afraid of me. Some said I was a witch. Some called me an alien. I was different and they all knew it. It did not help when as I grew older my permanent teeth came in horribly crooked. I got braces of course, modern times being what they are, and my longish canines were removed to reduce overcrowding in my mouth. By the time I reached high school, I had developed a number of vague physical problems that no one seemed to be able to identify. Along with a deep dark secret of drinking blood on rare occasion when I could; I had fainting and dizzy spells, developed food allergies, had trouble sleeping, developed chronic fatigue, and was very prone to heat stroke. I was in and out of hospitals as various medical professionals tried to figure out what was wrong with me. I became depressed and eventually attempted suicide. It took years of personal research, but I finally found an explanation. I am a vampire. It is not glamorous; it is not romantic; it is not cool. It is a royal pain in the neck (pun intended). I don't live my life as a vampire. Just like the character in my book, I live my life as a person. I'm not that interested in vampire books or movies. I don't run around looking for people to bite. I am in fact looking for ways to live my life without having to drink blood. Why? .Because I don't like being dependent on others for my...
