Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Guide to Management Improvement There are two kinds of efficiency: one kind is only apparent and is produced in organizations through the exercise of mere discipline. This is but a simulation of the second, or true, efficiency which springs, as Woodrow Wilson said, from the spontaneous cooperation of a free people. If you are a manager, no matter how great or small your responsibility, it is your job, in the final analysis, to create and develop this voluntary co operation among the people whom you super vise. For, nonnatter how powerful a com binationtxfmoney, machines and materials a company may have, this is a dead and sterile thing without a team of willing, thinking and articulate people to guide it.
