

Reflections on Faith: Thoughts and Devotions (Paperback)

By Ronnie Worsham

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Everyone lives by faith. It is impossible to not do so. Thus it is paramount that we carefully choose where we place our faith. Faith is merely a measure of the strength of our beliefs in the ideas, the people, the disciplines, the religions, and any other things that we hold to be true. The ones we accept with the highest degree of certainty are the things we hold with the greatest faith. The things we believe in the most and that exert the greatest bearing on our lives and existence are the things we can say we live by faith in. Faith is not easy though. It comes with risk. It comes with challenge. Its implications to us and to others are significant. Strong faith is one of the greatest feats of all. It is easy to live by little faith or even in doubt and fear. It is easy to live by misplaced or misdirected faith-faith in the wrong or the less important things, or faith in ideas or in people that are patently incorrect or insincere. However Jesus...
